Junior Developer

Summary

I'm a junior software developer with an insatiable curiosity, hunger for learning and a positive attitude. I enjoy working with a diversity of technologies - the more variety the better; and improving things for people.

I will contribute with relevant soft-skills I have actively developed during my career and the technical knowledge & experience I am constantly acquiring. I am committed, detail-oriented. And I like to feel proud of my work.

Work Experience

Senior IT Recruiter
Smart Hire IT Nordics

April 2022 - April 2023

During my 2y in the company, I became responsible of EU client handling, market reports delivery, marketing, leadership and collaboration, mentorship, and freedom to innovate with new solutions. Here is a showcase:

Client handling:

- Leading the account management of several clients in the tech industry across different countries in EU.
- Helping clients & candidates meet their expectations.
- Building strong and lasting relationships with clients that not only drove in new business for the company but also got me invited to their EU offices and a sponsored attendance to a major tech conference in Stockholm.

Collaboration and leadership:

- Worked well individually and in a team.
- Acquired strong communication & organizational skills
- Provided training and mentorship to the new crew.

Going the extra mile/ duties beyond my role:

- Key role in rebranding & building the new website.
- Improved operations by the creation of guidelines and by setting better standards for communication.
- Delivered a Social Media Audit - never been done before.
- Marketing: Video edited adverts & company posts.
- When I was getting promoted to "Head of the creative department" I stopped the process to start a more fulfilling path in software development.
